

Discipling your Children @ Home

This group of ideas is all about parent's initiating and leading spiritual activities for their kids at home. NOTE: To use the links: right click on the link and choose "open hyperlink"

1. Read the Bible together as a family. Kids get a turn to read aloud too!
2. Use the Parent Cue app or their conversation guides about times of crisis.
3. Parents can lead a family devotion time. Some printable devotion examples from our website.
4. Have a worship dance party. Put on praise music or use kids worship songs on YouTube.
5. Parents can lead a Bible craft with their kids. Lots of craft ideas on our website.
6. Plan a Christian family movie time (marathon style

I love the the BIBLE series. It's on Amazon Prime, just add popcorn! Watch a kids Christian program. Minno and Amplify media are some good options. You can find more options on YouTube too. Kids Club anywhere is an excellent free option.

7. Parents can lead a full "children's church" service.

Do a game, sing worship songs, learn a Bible story, and then have some fun activities.

8. Let kids plan & lead a "kids church service" for their parents in the audience role.

This reversal flip will be an awesome memory. I like the discussion guides and videos from Crossroads Kids Club (they are all free)

9. Learn a memory verse together.

We have memory verse games and a verse list to get you started.

10. Act out Bible story skits as a family.
11. Go for a prayer walk at home or in a local park or forest.

Have kids pray aloud giving God thanks while naming all the beautiful things they see.

NOTE: There is much more to explore where this is found.

Source: <https://ministry-to-children.com/online-ministry-when-church-is-cancelled/>