

Study Questions

1. What stood out to you, challenged you, or encouraged you from Sunday's sermon/service?

2. In John 13:1-17, at the Passover meal, there is no host present to provide for the essential job of washing the guests' feet. Read this passage. Who performs this most menial of tasks? What is the disciples' attitude toward the task? How does this passage connect to what Jesus was teaching in the passage in Matthew?

3. Read Proverbs 3:5-6. How might we use the ideas in this verse to become like little children?

4. Dallas Willard, an author and pastor said, "We should not try to love that person; we should train to become the kind of person who would love them." Put this quote in your own words. How might it connect to today's message?